Subject: Greg Rehn Letter-Parole not an option

January 7, 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Greg Rehn. I am the brother of Scott Rehn. He was brutally murdered on February 20th, 1994, by a certain Richard Hinger and a certain Marnie Peot. They murdered both my brother and his friend Jimmy Sorenson.

My brother was first shot, tied up, and then suffocated by wrapping duct tape around his entire head. Later they buried he and Jimmy in the desert, not to be found for over three months.

Words cannot express the pain and suffering my family has had to endure, especially my parents and my brother's children.

Any human being who could demonstrate such a brutally heinous act as this should never be considered for parole.

I am adamant that these two, Hinger and Peot, be incarcerated for the rest of their existence on this earth. One cannot imagine the magnitude of loss so many people have had to live with.

Sincerely,

Greg Rehn
