Police seek missing men

Review-Journal

Police are investigating the disappearance of a Las Vegas businessman who has been missing since Feb. 19 and is believed to be in the company of a work associate.

Scott L. Rehn was reported missing by his roommate and is believed to be with Jimmy Sorenson, a close friend and employee. They were together the evening of Feb. 19 in the northwest area of Las Vegas, where they were last seen.

The pair are believed to be in Rehn's gold 1986 Lincoln Mark VII, Nevada license plate 707FBR.

Anyone with information may contact the Las Vegas missing persons detail at 229-3561 or Secret Witness at 385-5555.
